

Prompt 1:

create a detailed graffiti piece on a white plastic table of Josh Allen playing football on the middle of a snowing game. Use strong contour lines to clearly define his figure, and include directional lines in the background to guide the viewers eye toward him. Show the implied motion by having him mid throwing motion, with his arm extended and the football just exiting his grasp. Use cross hatching and hatching to create value and depth. Make sure the positive space is focused on josh allen and the negative space behind him. Make the crowd geometric shapes in red and yellow clothing showing the unnatural vibe of chiefs fans.

Prompt 2:

Create something of similar style but of John wall with a wizard hat and magical powers.

These prompts include 2 iconic athletes in a unique yet similar style showing the adaption and connection art can have.

VOCAB:

Actual line: A line that is drawn

Implied line: A suggested line, not drawn

Directional line: A line that guides the viewer

Contour line : Line that outline and defines

Organic shape: Natural, curves

Geometric shape: Sharp edges, jagged edges, straight

Positive space: Main subject

Negative space:empty space

Implied shape: suggested space

Hatching: parallel shading

Cross hatching: perpendicular shading

Chiaroscuro: Big differnece in value/light and dark

Value: Light and dark

Perspective: The point of veiw

Texture: How a surface feels or looks

Volume: 3 dimensional illusion

Mass: the bulk or size

Implied motion: suggested movement

Actual motion: real movement